SAVOURY CREAMS

A new and innovative gastronomic solution!

Seven savoury creams in piping bags developed by famous master chef Max Mariola. In easy-to-use sac-a-poche, the creams are suitable for a variety of uses: topping of flat breads and pizzas, enrichment of sandwich and burger, as sauces for pasta and risotto, salad dressing, creative and original filling of canape/snacks and much more.

Chef Max Mariola opted for a range of sauces that would please everyone, focusing on major certified Italian products like Parmesan Cheese, Buffalo Mozzarella as well as other products like feta cheese, curry and hummus that are now used across many cuisines.

Without the need of a specialised workforce, easy to spread, our savoury creams are prepared with high quality ingredients, contain no preservatives, artificial colors and flavors.

3 FLAVORS

ASSORTED BREAD & FOCACCIAS

Constant research and innovation combined with creativity used in traditional bread-making, have resulted in an amazing range of bread made with durum wheat semolina from Apulia region, the southeastern 'heel' of Italy.

Our focaccias, ciabattas and baguettes are super tasty, extremely light to digest, long lasting and with a rather soft crust thanks to the larger-than-usual amount of extra virgin olive oil used in the dough preparation.

Strengthen your customers' loyalty and give them something to look forward to!

PRESERVED VEGETABLES

Choose from a vast assortment of sauces and condiments for the professional F&B industry.

From pickled vegetables to sauces, pesto, olives, artichokes, beans, corn, capsicum, eggplants, tuna filets, anchovies and many other preserved vegetables.

Every product is guaranteed during each production phase: from choice of suppliers to laboratory analysis of raw materials, including technology-based controls during the production phase and analysis of finished products.

Ideal for antipasto servings, as side dishes or accompaniment, to enhance their recipes and culinary creations.

ARTISANAL FLOURS

Discover our range of artisanal flours of the very highest quality, with specific characteristics to satisfy all the needs of those who use them on a daily basis in a professional capacity. If you are a baker, pastry chef or pizza chef, you cannot settle for just any flour.

The professional line with their rare combination of flavour, naturalness and lightness includes special and innovative flours, designed to ensure the success of any preparation!

The quality of the grains selected has allowed the attainment of a flour of great strength and stability that is suitable for the production of bread, pizza, focaccia and pastries with long rising times. Professionals, but also amateurs and baking enthusiasts, can use them in their recipes and bring a good, healthy, genuine and 100% Italian product to their dining tables.
